

Krewe de Jeanne d'Arc song

Krewe de Jeanne d'Arc lyrics to the traditional tune Scots Wha Hae / Hey Tuttie Tatie

By Carol Lynch and Amanda Helm

Who has set the city free?
Joan of Arc her bravery
Has won the day and now's the hour of our victory

Jeanne d'Arc, courageous Maid,
Orléans you came to save Scots and French allied to stave off England's tyranny

Krewe de Jeanne d'Arc are we Artists joined in Joan's army
The stars of Twelfth Night let us be
We march in unity

Jeanne d'Arc was called to lead
Led with banner, sword and steed Men followed her and so will we on to victory.

Practice track of krewe members singing with lyrics on screen: <https://youtu.be/Gxw88Le95IM>

Hear the tune (without singers): <https://youtu.be/uVWYyGHq7Rqw>

Note: According to historical records, this ancient Scottish battle tune was played in 1429 by the pipers accompanying Joan of Arc, her French army and their Scottish allies, into battle to raise the English siege of Orléans, France.

Traditional Melody

Words by Carol Lynch

Andante, slow March

Who has set the ci-ty free? Joan of Arc, her bra-ver-y has won the day and now's the hour of our vic-tor-y of our vic-tor-y.